New Commissioner

We are happy to introduce our newest Commission member, Alan Lobley. Mr. Lobley was appointed by Mayor Peterson in October 2001.

Lobley received a degree in Chemical Engineering from Purdue University in 1949, an MBA from the University of Michigan in 1950, and a J.D. degree from the Indiana University School of Law (Bloomington) in 1952. His business career includes twenty-two years as an associate and subsequently partner in Ice Miller Donadio & Ryan (formerly Ross McCord Ice & Miller). In addition, Lobley served as a First Lieutenant in the United States Air Force, Air Material Command from 1952-54 and was a project engineer for Miles Laboratories in 1949. He currently works as an Arbitrator. Lobley is a member of the Indianapolis Rowing Center and the Shepherd's Center of Indianapolis Board of Directors.
